Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loos-ens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.
To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pinex with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CINEMA OF CRIME REFLECTED UPON POLICE BLOTTER

The thieves rode Monday night, while auto owners walked.
Dr. J. L. Andrews, superintendent of the city health department, was among the victims. He reported that his five-passenger Oakland was stolen from in front of the Baptist hospital at 9 o'clock. It bore tag No. 87192.
B. E. McIntyre, 1715 Summit street, told police his little '34 Studebaker, No. 199949, had been stolen from in front of his home.
H. L. Briscoe, 1070 North Parkway, telephoned cop headquarters that his Lexington, No. 21574, had been stolen.
Patrolman Nichols found it later.
T. G. Musick, 1563 Tutwiler, is out one five-passenger Buick, taken from Monroe avenue and Front street.

The next time H. G. Tisdale, of Park field, decides to go to the Graham, he will carry his coat inside, instead of leaving it in his automobile. The one he abandoned that way Monday night now is long gone.

A fox fur neck piece was stolen from the residence of Mrs. S. E. Miller, 128 Court avenue, while she and her family were at dinner, according to a report made to police.

Considerable of a wardrobe was obtained by a sneak thief when he robbed the home of Mrs. Stella Groves, 187 Pontotoc avenue, Monday. A blue tri-colored suit, black satin dress, brown cheviot coat with fur collar, and two long hair pins set with diamonds were missing when Mrs. Groves checked up.

Forty cents in cash and a like amount in stamps, also two penholders and a pocketbook containing a bank book but no cash, were stolen Monday from the home of Mrs. W. T. James, 121 Walnut street, according to a report made to city detectives. She said it was the second visit of thieves.

Ed Strickland, negro, who attempted to wrest a pistol from a Piggy Wiggy special officer, and who was shot for his facetiousness, will face a charge of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer as soon as he is able to leave the General hospital, where he was patched up for pistol bullet wounds in the arm and breast. The special officer claimed he saw Strickland steal a pound of butter and some soap from the P. W. at Vance avenue and Lauderdale street.

Police have been asked to look for W. H. Stevenson, 19, tall, fair, blue eyes, yellow curly hair, wearing soldier clothes. His mother, Mrs. Mary Steve-son, is almost frantic since W. H. disappeared from home, 206 Court avenue, last Thursday. He had $10 and she fears foul play. She has since removed to 373 South Front street.

Lee Bailey, alias "Big Day," negro, was arrested Monday night by Patrolmen J. B. Williams and Smith, on a charge that he committed larceny from the person of Willie Edwards, 321 Rayburn boulevard. "Big Day" is wintering at 916 James street.

From Fulton, Ky., came the request to Memphis police Monday night to watch for L. D. Manney's five-passenger car, stolen from Martin, Tenn.

Day and night relief cops still are strong, of the daily police bulletin, meant when he said that Opie Bul-ling, rear 417 Union avenue, reported the loss of one "midnight shirt."

Mrs. W. T. Martin, 1843 Union, still is looking for the 16-year-old negroess to whom she gave the family wash last week.

A brown balmain coat, late the property of William A. Parker, negro, 876 North Bellevue, still is missing, Bill told police.

Why thieves didn't take the whole Ford is the mystery. But they got four wheels and the fire from this ver-ver of Mrs. Mary K. Lundy, 220 Hill street, Monday night. They left the torso.

Who said H. C. L.?
A diamond ring, set with apphires, a ruby ring, a diamond cross, pendant, and a quart of whisky were stolen from the residence of Mrs. R. Taylor, 244 North Bellevue boulevard, according to the police bulletin.
"All to the value of $14," the police report reads.

The unconscious humor displayed in the police bulletin is reflected in the following from the issue dated Monday, Nov. 26.

"CHICKENS STOLEN—H. E. Nathan, 1314 Peabody, reports thief entered his henhouse and stole a turkey cow, which was in the henhouse."

A bale of cotton, weighing 180 pounds, marked "I-X," was reported stolen by Sherman Beaman Monday.

Police Sgt. "Red" Davis returned from Nashville Monday, bringing with him Henry E. Gibson, 31, North Dunlap street, who is wanted on charge of passing bad checks on Phil A. Halle and Sanders & Co. Gibson was given into the custody of Sheriff O. H. Perry, who had a capias warrant for his arrest.

The black shirt king of America is the title with which Detective Carpenter and Long have invested Curtis Brown, negro, who was taken on the police station, along with a sack which contained about 30 shirts, mostly silk, and about 35 neckties. Brown was poked up in a railroad yard with the sack on his back. On his reciting that he bought the shirts in Cleveland, Miss., and also that he earned $10 a week, he was looked up for investigation.

ACCUSED OF SNATCHING PURSE FROM GIRL

Identified by Helen Marie Nik, 19, daughter of John Nik, 219 Poplar avenue, as the man who had snatched a purse containing $1.50 out of her hand, Jim Carr, alleged morphine addict, was jailed Tuesday morning on charges of larceny from the person and loitering.
Carr was captured, along with four other "mobsters" perched on the back porch of an abandoned shack at Front street and Winchester avenue. The quintet was preparing to get, solace from a little "shot" when Emergency Police Officer and Vannucci swooped down on them.

The little Nik girl had gone to police headquarters to get a prescription for her mother from Dr. J. L. Drake, police surgeon. As she was going home in the alley off Third street, between Washington and Poplar avenues, she saw Carr, who was wearing a hat and men who heard her screams followed Carr to his haven of safety, and then saw Carr's companions were charged with loitering.

J. O. BALDWIN WANTS DAMAGES FOR EXPLOSION

Claiming that on the night of Nov.
3, while watching a pyrotechnic display at Citizens' league political meeting, a giant firecracker exploded very close to him, badly burning his fingers and ears, causing him to suffer deafness and hemorrhages, J. O. Baldwin late Monday filed suit for damages in the circuit court through his attorney, P.
W. Lanier, against the campaign committee of the Citizens' league, including R. R. Ellis, M. E. Woodson, Leslie M.
Stratton, A. E. Jennings, Bolton Smith and R. L. Jordan.

Baldwin claims that Dr. Woodson was in charge of the fireworks display and that he, Baldwin, went to the meeting on invitation. The injury took place at Bellevue boulevard and North Parkway, he says.

MAIMED WAR VICTIM PREACHES ON HAPPINESS

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Sgt. Nicholls, of the Durham light infantry, who is blind, has lost his hands and two ribs and through a mistake of a friend received several hundred minute wounds in an accident at the front, recently preached a sermon on "How to Attain Happiness."
He said he was determined to live and had not yet had a fit of depression since his misfortune. He found happiness in trying to help others less fortunate than himself.

Just Supposin'

Suppose your boy or girl worked for a concern that believes that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy"; that believes that your boy or girl is not simply a "number" but a necessary factor to the success of the business;

That also believes this girl of yours can do more and better work if she doesn't have to work too long; that she should have a nice rest room, a nice place to eat, with good healthy food served at cost, and a club room where she can have her dances; that the boy should have his club room where he can play pool with his fellow workers, read, or do anything he wants to.

If your boy or girl worked with us, it wouldn't be "Just Supposin'" because every man and woman working here has all these things. Do you wonder, then, that everything we make is so good? It simply isn't possible for a bunch of happy men and women, working under these conditions, not to put their heart in their work.

It's because of these things that we make a product, and give it the name BALLARD.
